BLOODY AFFRAY IN COURT ROOM

Prisoner Shoots Justice of the Peace and Two Others.

IS THEN KILLED BY DEPUTY

Court Room at Christopher, Ill., Filled with Citizens at Time Attracted by the Novelty of a Midnight Session.

Benton, Ill., Aug. 12. — Attempting to escape after being remanded to jail for examination, Martin Shadowens shot Justice of Peace James Mannon, City Marshall John Stakinrider and a spectator, and cut Deputy Tom Mackey.

Mackey then shot and killed Shadowens, whose brother, Charles, fell from a second-story window and probably was fatally hurt. The shooting occurred at Christopher, a small town near Benton, at midnight.

The Shadowens had been arrested for shooting on the streets after a man named Benges had been injured by a bullet. Martin Shadowns pleaded to be allowed to appear in the justice court later, but Justice Mannon ordered that he be taken to jail.

Without a warning Martin shot Justice Mannon through the right arm and then put two bullets through the body of Marshall Stakinrider. It is believed Stakinrider will die.

The courtroom was crowded by citizens attracted by the novelty of a night session and William Shultz, the spectator, received a bullet intended for Mackey.

Mackey was injured in approaching Shadowens before he fire the fatal shot. In the excitement Charles Shadowens fell from the courtroom window on the second floor.

LONDON STRIKE FULLY SETTLED

Workers Will Resume Employment on Monday.

CAUSES OF THE GREAT TIE-UP

Men Walked Out Spontaneously And In Two Days Obtained Larger Advances in Wages Than in Years Before.

London, Ang. 12.—Geo. Ranken Askwith, comptroller general of the commercial labor and statistical departments of the board of trade, after a session of thirteen hours, has settled the last outstanding dispute, that of the lightermen.

The strike is now at an end and all work will be resumed Monday, though doubtless many will return to work on Saturday.

During the progress of the strike the streets of London were nearly deserted. More than half the petrol driven vehicles had disappeared and cars and vans were nowhere to be seen. The most populous parts of East London had a Sabbath quiet. Violence was caused by strikers only in a few instances. The roughs who are always looking for trouble in London did the upsetting of vans and the dragging of drivers from their seats. The ruffians left the heart of the metropolis and went into the roads in the suburbs to assail delivery wagons.

The strike, which is altogether peculiar, came about in a wholly unexpected manner. The men seemed to walk out spontaneously and in two days they won larger advances in wages than they had been able to win by years of agitation. The recognized labor leaders had nothing to do with the strike and were as much surprised by it as anybody. For example, the principal man among the car employes was a regular worker.

"We were very poor and we just could not stand it any longer," he said. "No leadership was needed, for every man acted as his own leader. We kept the peace so far as our own numbers are concerned. The men guilty of violence were persons we had not seen before except loafing in public houses."

News of the final signing of this measure by Speaker Clark and Vice-President Sherman reached him. He will probably have the veto message ready by the time that he returns to Washington Monday.

WILL NOT LEAVE JACK

Young Mrs. Geraghty Is Finally Interviewed.

Bridegroom Says He Did Not Marry Her For Money or For Her Connection With Vanderbilts.

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 12.—Mrs. "Handsome Jack" Geraghty refuses absolutely to give up her husband and the bridegroom has engaged lawyers in this city and in Newport to protect his interests, as he believes the parents of his heiress bride will endeavor to break them up.

"Oh Julia, mind coming a minute. They say I abducted you. Is that so?" called the chauffeur to his bride today when seen by a reporter.

"I should say it was not. If anybody did that it was I that took you away, Jack," replied his eighteen-year-old bride.

"Jack is all the world to me," continued Mrs. Geraghty, "and nothing could part us."

"I understand, Geraghty said, "that my wife's father is going to try to have me arrested for abduction on the ground that she is under age. Julia is eighteen years old and she certainly was most willing to go with me. We think a lot of each other. This talk about marrying her for money and because of her connection with the Vanderbilt family is all rubbish. My parents have not anything like the money that hers have, of course, but they are good respectable people and I hold them just as high in my estimati as I would her parents."

FEDERAL ROADS ARE PROPOSED

Senator Cullom Introduces Bill for Seven Big Highways.

NAMED FOR NATIONAL FIGURES

Many States to be Benefited by Expenditure of $48,000,000 For Lanes of Travel Radiating From National Capital.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Senator Cullom of Illinois, in a bill he has introduced, proposed that the national government shall begin the construction of improved highways as part of its general system of internal improvements.

He proposes that it shall provide for such work on as liberal a scale as marked congress in making provision for river and harbor work or even for the construction of the Panama canal. The bill proposes to appropriate $1,000,000 to enable a commission to make plans for the construction of seven great national highways radiating from the national capital to several parts of the country and to cost an average of $12,000 a mile or $48,000,000 in all.

They are to be known as the Washington, Roosevelt, Lincoln, Grant National, Jefferson, Monroe and Lee highways.

The bill declares there is no doubt of power of congress to undertake such internal improvements under either the war-making power, the inter state commerce clause, or the authority to establish postroads.

The Washington national highway would run from the city of Washington to Portland, Maine, the Roosevelt highway to Niagara Falls, the Lincoln highway to Seattle, Wash., via Chicago; the Great National interstate highway almost due west from Washington, traversing the states of Utah, Nevada, and California; the Jefferson highway across New Mexico, Arizona, and California to San Francisco; the Monroe highway would have its terminus in Austin, Texas, and the Lee highway would end at Miami, Fla. All will radiate from Washington.

The bill recites that the government is already committed to the policy of road building, having constructed the Cumberland road at an expense of $6,000,000 and in 1882 spent $19,000,000 for good roads. It has also $3,000,000 in the Philippines and $2,000,000 in Alaska for highways.

DIED THIS MORNING

MISS LILLIAN OLIFF SUCCUMBS AFTER SERIOUS BUT SHORT ILLNESS.

Had Been a Member of Normal Faculty in the Department of Oratory Since 1906.

Miss Lillian M. Oliff passed away this morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. Don Lawrence, 422 Pearl street, after an illness of four weeks. She had contemplated going to Boston in the autumn to study in the Leland Powers school of oratory and to that end had taught additional time in the summer school. Her malady, which was malignant endocarditis, is one which has in all cases baffled medical skill.

Miss Oliff has had a highly successful experience in teaching the subjects of reading and oratory, having been an instructor in the schools in Jackson and Ionia and in the Lewis School in Detroit. In 1906 she accepted the position of assistant in the department of reading and oratory in the Normal, which she has continuously held since. Her inclination and ambition both inspired her to constant study. She is a graduate of Olivet College, of the Cumnock School of Oratory at the Northwestern University, and of the Thomas Normal in Detroit.

Miss Oliff, whose birthplace is Milford, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Oliff of Clio. She was one of four sisters, the others being Mrs. J. Don Lawrence of this city, Mrs. F. J. Newcomber of Flint and Miss Edith Oliff.

A special car will convey the funeral party to Clio, where the services and the interment will take place.

MR. AND MRS. TUPPER ARE REPORTED TO BE RECOVERING FROM INJURIES

Mrs. H. J. Handy called Wednesday at Harper Hospital in Detroit to inquire after the condition of Mr. and Mrs. Tupper. She was admitted to their room and found them both resting with comparative comfort. The broken bones have been carefully set and seem to be growing together in a promising manner so that although both will be confined to the hospital for some time yet and will suffer much more pain, it seems probable that they will recover and be able to return to their home here within a few weeks.

TROUBLE BREWS AMONG MEXICANS

Magonists Becoming Active in Northern Sections.

ANTI-RE-ELECTIONISTS MOVING

They Intend to Run Dr. Vasquez Gomez against Both Madero and Reyes For President—That Means Reyes' Election.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 12.—Leaders of the Magonista movement in northern Mexico, declared that the decision of the anti-re-electionist party in Mexico to fight Francisco Madero in the coming election will give impetus to their military movement throughout the country and that it will not be long until they have a large army in the field.

The anti-re-electionists are going to run Dr. Vasquez Gomez, former revolutionary agent in Washington, for the presidency against both Reyes and Madero. Americans believe this assures the election of Gen. Bernardo Reyes and means further trouble, as many of Madero's followers are ordered to return to the field if he is defeated. Many of them refuse now to be disbanded and are remaining in the field.

At Juarez recently, the Maderistas ran the federals out of town when they came to relieve the insurrectos and word comes from Torreon that orders and counter orders have been passing with startling rapidity in official circles, yet the day of departure of the Maderist rurales from Torreon is not determined.

Special trains have been ordered on several occasions during the past week, but 700 Maderists remain under arms in Lerdo, Gomez Palacio and in Torreon. These are expected to give way to 900 federal troops, who are expected to arrive at any time under Gen. De La Vega, now in Monterey, but whether they will is problematical. Then, too, the federals may have other troubles.

A report is received at Maderista headquarters that a band of 500 Magonistas are encamped at Charcos de Risa in the neighborhood of San Pedro.

That the Magonistas are active in that region is certain, for this week the Torreon police arrested J. M. Garcia, from Los Angeles, an emissary of Ricardo Flores Magon for inciting a Magonista movement. Garcia had been tracked since leaving the United States and was arrested upon alighting from the El Paso train. He bore several letters from Flores Magon and other documents, including a manifesto inciting the Mexican people to another revolution. The call contained coupons asking each volunteer to forward his name to Flores Magon, together with 25 cents American currency as an evidence of good faith.

BOMB BLAST KILLS TWO

MAN WHO PLANTED EXPLOSIVE IS VICTIM NN SAINT LOUIS.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 12. — A Black Hand bomb, exploded in the crowded Italian colony on "Dago Hill" here, killed Mrs. Joseph Lardello and a man who has not been identified, injured fourteen other residents of a two story brick building, which was completely wrecked. The placing of the bomb followed the receipt of two Black Hand letters by the owner of the building. The letters came from Brooklyn, N. Y., where the owner, Tony Romano, resided until seven months ago.

The unidentifed dead man is supposed by the police to have placed the bomb in the building. His body was mutilated. Residents of the district said they never had seen him before.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 12, 1911

Had Richard Callard, the Rose township, Oakland county, farmer had access to a postal savings bank, he probably would have saved his life earnings of $910, which were stolen from his trunk in the house a day or two ago. He permitted his prejudice against banks of the old established kind to remain with him throughout his seventy years of existence. He permitted his fear grounded on the reports of an occasional bank failure to persuade him to take his small earnings and put them in a little tin trunk and keep them in the house. This largely unfounded fear prevails in the minds of a goodly number of people and very largely among the foreigners. Yet they have perfect confidence in the United States government, and we believe the postal savings bank will really bring into circulation a large volume of money which is put into tin trunks and stockings and buried out behind the barn and otherwise kept out of circulation, and, by bringing it into circulation, it will earn for the owners two per cent interest meanwhile.

Whether President Taft's hopes that the postal savings bank will bring out of seclusion a sufficient amount of money to build the Panama Canal proves correct or not, we believe it will bring into circulation a large volume of small holdings, and very largely stop the sending abroad by suspicious foreigners of their earnings here, or the buying of postal money orders and the holding of these indefinitely, without interest, because they believe the government is safe and are a little suspicious of everything else.

"WHAT IS SOCIALISM?"

As every great cause centers around some great soul who establishes it, the activities of Socialism radiate primarily from the German, Karl Marx. A brief side-light then on Karl Marx is needed if we are to understand the real mainspring of Socialism.

Marx was born in Germany, at Treves, on the fifth of May, 1818. A loyal Jew by race, he was not a Hebrew, however, by religion. His mother's family had come from Hungary, but had, since the seventeenth century made its home in Holland, and his father was decended from two hundred years of rabbis. His father was a lawyer of deep technical learning and high professional standing and an enthusiastic student of Voltaire, and his general attitude toward such matters seems to have been transmitted to the son. Karl Marx studied law with commendable diligence at both the University of Berlin and that of Bonn. "His individual taste, however, lay, rather in the direction of philosophy and history, and these subjects, which he pursued to please himself, were, naturally, the ones in which he especially excelled. Even while he was an undergraduate, his scholarship attracted favorable attention, and, in 1841, with a thesis upon the Stoicism of Epictetus, he received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy."

He wanted to lecture at Bonn upon his specialty and made special preparation for it, but he was persuaded that "scholastic freedom of action, speech and thought was impossible in Prussia and entered the field of radical journalism."

He married Jenny von Westphalen who sprang from the titled class. Her father was half Scotch, was related through his mother, to the Argylls. She was always of the greatest help to her husband in his long struggle in the creation of Das Capital, his great work often called the Socialist Bible.

To understand the fidelity with which Socialists cling to the doctrine of Marx, it is necessary to understand something of the sacrifice he went through in order to bring forth this volume. With quite a large family and driven in exile from his own country, he lived in two small cheap rooms in London, chiefly upon a weekly five dollars sent him by the New York Tribune in return for special economic articles written in begrudged moments. He spent long days among the books in the British Museum and longer nights first in copying and next in codifying the notes that he had made during the day, and amid a poverty that would either have killed or corrupted a weaker man.

As has well been said, "This was a part of the price that Karl Marx and his wife paid for 'Das Capital.'"

And this poverty cost them the lives of three of his children. He had intended to write other volumes, but he didn't live to do it. Neither did his wife live to help him. Seemingly, the lives of the whole family were virtually made a sacrifice to his work. But, as Mr. Kauffman says, "Certainly no work of its particular kind has so colored the opinions or affected the lives of mankind." And, as Napoleon Bonaparte says, "It is the cause, and not the death, that makes the martyr." Karl Marx is looked upon as a martyr, and his work has endured, to be read by increasing thousands of the faith.

NEWS BRIEFS

STATE

MONROE—A conference has been held between the Detroit, Toledo and Monroe committees relative to the proposed good roads between Toledo and Detroit. It was brought out that the road from Detroit to Toledo was the gateway to and from the south, east and west; that sixty per cent of the automobile industries of the United States was located in Detroit. Tar bound macadam road was recommended.

NATIONAL

DALLAS, Tex.—A proposition to build roads of shells instead of macadam is being entertained by the commissioners of Dallas county. The more a shell road is used, the more compact it becomes. It is as lasting as a Roman road, and there is an inexhaustible supply of shells in oyster beds which are owned by the state.

BOSTON — Mr. Okakura-Kakuzo, curator of the Japanese department of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, has left for a year in Japan. He is the founder of an art school in Japan whose ideal is the preserving of the old traditions of Japanese art, which were in danger of being westernized. He is said to be the greatest living authority on Japanese art in the world.

KENNEBUNK, Me.—Samuel Fox and Joseph Russell, the Boy Scouts who have started to walk from Portland to San Francisco, arrived here Tuesday. All along the route they will be met by delegations of Boy Scouts and when they pass through Boston they will meet city officials and will hand a letter to Governor Foss. They go without funds, except what they get by selling autograph pictures of themselves, or may make in other ways on the journey.

FOREIGN

ST. PETERSBURG—The first boy companies or "play troops," the Russian equivalent to the English Boy Scouts, will be reviewed by the Czar this summer. The object of this movement is to train boys to be useful citizens. The Czar has read Gen. Baden-Powell's books on boy scouts, has ordered them to be translated into Russian and distributed 25,000 copies among those interested. A retired non-commissioned officer will be placed in every elementary school to act very much in the same capacity as a drill sergeant in an English school. No weapons will be given the boys, but they will learn military marching and drilling and loyalty and love to their country will be instilled.

LONDON—Sir Madho Rao Sindhia Bahadur, Maharajah of Gwalior, has placed the sum of $40,000 at the disposal of the King for distribution to such charitable institutions as he might deem wise.

NORWAY—In this country, likewise in Italy, Belgium and Holland, the boy scout movement has been taken up most enthusiastically. In Sweden the explorer, Dr. Sven Hedin, is at the head of the boy scouts. In South American states, especially Chile, the growth of the movement has been very marked.

BERLIN—At the three Kaiser parades which will take place this month and next, the Empress in colonel's uniform will ride at the head of her regiment of fusiliers before her husband. Princess Eitel Friedrich will lead the twelfth dragoons and Queen Victoria of Sweden will probably appear as colonel of the thirty-fourth fusiliers.

BRUSSELS—A cordial welcome was given in this city to the Queen of Holland, who was accompanied by the prince consort.

Ypsilanti, Mich., Aug. 7, 1911.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of Ypsilanti:

Gentlemen—Whereas the Michigan Central railroad crossing at the depot in this city is in a deplorable condition, also Forest Avenue crossing;

And whereas the citizens have plied with the railroad company and the council and have remonstrated with all the authorities for fifteen years past trying to in some way get this crossing in a decent, to say nothing of a reasonable condition;

And whereas every effort on the part of the citizens has failed and buggy and wheels are broken, drivers are hurt, wagons injured, bicycles ruined and their riders hurt, and autos spoiled, all because of the terrible condition of this crossing.

Can't you have it fixed? If not, say so; and if not, why not?

Must we proceed in the courts individually, or by wa yof the railroad commissioner to have this awful condition cease?

We ask, beg and implore of you to fix it, and have it attended to immediately so that no more injury can be done.

Resolution.

Whereas an agreement has been reached between the City of Ypsilanti and the Detroit, Jackson & Chicago Railway regarding the rebuilding of the Congress Street Bridge, and the payment of the cost thereof, which agreement it is for the best interests of the City to enter into;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the City of Ypsilanti do enter into and the Mayor and City Clerk be and they are hereby authorized and directed in behalf of the City to enter into an agreement with the Detroit, Jackson & Chicago Railway, as follows:

Agreement.

This Agreement, made and entered into this .... day of August, 1911, by and between the City of Ypsilanti, a municipal corporation, and the Detroit, Jackson & Chicago Railway, a street railway corporation, both organized and existing under the laws of the State of Michigan, Witnesseth:

WHEREAS

(a) The Detroit, Jackson & Chicago Railway, as assignee of the Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti Street Railway Company and the Ann Arbor & Ypsilanti Electric Railway Company, owns and operates a street railway through the streets of the City of Ypsilanti, under the provisions of certain ordinances of said City approved respectively August 18, 1896, and February 8, 1898, under which ordinances it is provided that

"In the event of any bridge traversed by the tracks of said railway becoming unfit for further travel and requiring renewal, the cost of such renewal shall be borne equally by the City of Ypsilanti and said Ann Arbor & Ypsilanti Electric Railway Company, its successrs and assigns."

(b) The Congress Street bridge across the Huron River, traversed by the tracks of said railway has become unfit for further travel and requires renewal, and the City has determined to build a new bridge to replace the same and has had prepared plans, specifications and estimates therefor.

(c) It is the claim of the Railway that its obligation under its franchise from the City of Ypsilanti requires it to pay half of the cost of replacing said bridge with a structure of the same character and width and of like strength when new, but the plans and specifications prepared for the City provide for a new bridge of greater width and strength and of different materials than the old bridge.

(d) It is desirable that the new bridge should be of sufficient greater width and strength so that the Railway may under its franchise hereafter operate a double track across such bridge in place of the single track as at present and said Railway instead of paying merely its proportion of the cost of replacing the present iron bridge is willing to pay half of the cost of construction of a concrete arch bridge of equal width and, in addition the cost of widening such bridge to the extent of nine and 8/10 (9.8) feet so that it may hereafter operate a double track across the same as aforesaid.

(e) Estimates have been prepared by the Engineer employed by the City showing the proportion to be paid by the Railway to be seventeen thousand seve hundred and six dollars ($17,706.00) which said sum includes the railway's full proportion of the cost of the bridge under its franchise, approaches, thereto, special construction for railway tracks, engineering charges and cost of everything to be done in connection with the replacing of such bridge.

(f) The City desires to proceed immediately with the construction of the bridge and that the Railway should pay its proportion of the cost thereof from time to time a sthe work progresses.

Therefore it is Agreed as follows:

1. The City of Ypsilanti shall build a new concrete arch bridge to replace the present iron Congress Street bridge according to the plans and specifications drawn by its Consulting Engineer, Mr. Benjamin Douglas, such plans being marked 1A, 2, 3 and 4, the design being known as Design 1A, such plans calling for a bridge of a total width of 80 ft. and 8 in. and a roadway of 66 ft. The total estimated cost of all work, including the bridge, approaches, special construction for railway tracks and engineering charges being about forty-nine thousand dollars ($49,000.00). The operation of replacing said bridge shall be so conducted that railway traffic shall not be unreasonably interfered with. The bridge shall be so constructed that the Railway may construct and operate a double track across the same.

2. The Railway in full of its proportion of the cost of replacing the present bridge under its franchise and to meet the extra cost of widening the bridge so as to enable it to operate a double track thereon, including cost of bridge proper, approaches, special construction for railway tracks, engineering charges and cost of everything to be done in connection with the replacing of such bridge, shall pay the City the sum of seventeen thousand seven hundred and six dollars ($17,706.00) as follows: Eighty per cent (80%) of its proportion of each estimate furnished by the engineer in charge of the work on or before the 10th day of the month following the submission of such estimate to the Railway; the balance is to be paid on or before the 10th day of the month following notice of completion and acceptance of the bridge by the City. The Railway shall furnish and lay its own ties rails and overhead equipment but the City under said plans shall furnish a foundation for the tracks, concrete filling between ties, and paving, on bridge and approaches, the cost thereof being included in the foregoing sum of $17,706.00.

3. The Railway shall at the time of the construction of said bridge lay a double track across the same but shall not be required to construct a second track connecting therewith until it shall find it convenient so to do; the present single track on Congress street shall be connected with the northerly said double tracks across said bridge.

In Witness Whereof, the parties hereto have caused this agreement to be signed by their respective officers there unto lawfully authorized and their corporate seals to be hereto affixed the day and year first above written.

Reports of Committees.

Committee to investigate street oiling—

Report that they have looked into the matter and believe that the use of oils, or as they are more properly called, binders, on the streets of Ypsilanti would be the best solution of the dust problem where streets are not paved.

They would recommend that the heavy binders be used as they are more lasting.

They would recommend that a suitable storage tank be installed before purchasing any binders and that a tank wagon with heater also be purchased for distributing binders.

J. W. STEVENS,
E. C. CORNWELL,
Special Com.

On motion of Ald. Stevens received and filed.

The Streets and Walks Committee—

Report that they have viewed the Barret Barn on Pierson street and found it in good condition.

That they would recommend that tennant should be notified not to use the street for washing carriages, cleaning horses and hitching horses to vehicles as complained of by residents of Pierson street but should do all this work inside of street line.

That there seems to be some question whether Pierson street, so called, is a street or an alley and the Streets and Walks Committee would recommend that this be referred to the City Attorney.

E. C. CORNWELL,
M. J. LEWIS,
J. G. WORDEN,

On motion of Moore receive and referred to City Attorney.

The Streets and Walks Committee—

Report that in accordance with instructions of the Council Mr. Jerome Allen has been engaged to survey walks and curbs at sixty cents per hour for time occupied in such work.

Jobbers Declare Dry Weather Will Cause Shrinkage.

Saginaw, Mich., Aug. 12.—The Michigan Bean Jobbers' association met and discussed the crop conditions. Secretary V. P. Cash said that the absence of rain will cause a shrinkage in production this year.

A 10 to 15 per cent more acreage was planted over last year, when the crop amounted to 6,000,000 bushels, but this season, he said, it will fall below those figures. The bean men are worried over the continued dry weather.

ACTS ON FATHER'S ORDERS

Now Ashley Youth Must Answer For Murderous Assault.

Ithaca, Mich., Aug. 12.—Stephen Spacel, nineteen years old, is to be examined on a charge of murderous assault. It is alleged that during a drunken brawl at the home in Ashley of two families of Bohemians, Spacel struck John Saikos with an iron bar, causing a serious injury.

Frank Spacel, father of Stephen, is said to have instigated the assault, first urging Stephen to shoot Saikos. In an attempt to obey, the boy is alleged to have discharged a shotgun; the charge narrowly missing a woman who was escaping from the house. The elder Spacel is serving 30 days in the county jail. All are beet weeders.

DAMAGE BY FIRE $10,000

Shift in Wind Saves Marysville From Destruction.

Marysville, Mich., Aug. 12.—Only a shift in the wind saved this village from destruction by fire. As it was, the loss will reach $10,000, which is only partly covered by insurance.

The fire originated in the grocery store of William Johnstone, and quickly spread to the home of William Carpenter, a short distance away. Both buildings were destroyed with their contents. Several other buildings caught fire, but were saved by the work of a volunteer bucket brigade.
